

Brownville, Nebraska's Freedom Day Celebration

Our annual all day, fun filled, family oriented event on Friday, July 4, 2014.

We need you and/or your organization to consider being part of our fantastic, patriotic parade. The Fourth of July is fast approaching; the parade is an integral part of the day. Brownville starts out the day @ 7:00 am with a 5k Freedom Run followed by the parade at 10:00, then moving on to an old time patriotic program and lunch. Several options are available for the afternoon, free museums, trolley rides, riverboat rides, band concerts, children's tractor pull, and repertory theatre, unique shopping and much more, evening entertainment will be the ever popular rock n roll duo "Enigma" and of course fireworks over the Missouri River. Come be part of the parade but stay for your family's enjoyment and to build memories.

If you would like to be part of the parade in Brownville on the Fourth of July, please fill out the form below and mail by June 28 to:

Marilyn Woerth
64641 731 Road
